

leaving a trace of your existence, for that is not to h lived.

7th. We must bear in mind to help the trade of N for instance, Piedmont can get its sugar, coffee, and ot colonial produce through Nice, and in the same way s< and every other article that Marseilles and our ma factories can supply.

(To Talleyrand.) Let me know within twenty-f hours of its reception the

I have ofte/ contents of 13th. (every France, an dispatch fi an public fac ambassador
or minister

15th. (the Republic
He has on the duty as a
with the French
em
w

plenipotentiary. At the ti I was opening the bag of the ministry of foreign affai: realized you received official reports on matters t |tried to get knowledge of by indirect me* Fouch6.) Keep all English papers ou1 in particular prevent their circulating fid reading-rooms.

falleyrand.)
Citoyen
Lannes,
Ministe: Lisbon, was wrong in leaving that c

very rule,
every form,
failed in the i
fc official,
which is not to leave his j sitive order of his Government.
' • has been
rude to the Court of Lisbon atorial
manners, and
by going a\
He must be recalled. Saint
Cloud: